

Nonprofit Legal Checklist

This checklist was created for nonprofit organizations, particularly their board members, to assist them on the road to good legal health. But please understand that this checklist is only a starting point. Any checklist has limitations. Please recognize:

- This checklist is intended only for publicly supported charities. Private foundations, supporting organizations, or charitable trusts should not use this checklist.
- This checklist is simply a guide; it does not contain and should not be relied upon as legal advice.
- Laws and rules change constantly, and this checklist may become out-of-date.
- The checklist addresses common concerns of 501(c)(3) public charities incorporated as nonprofit corporations in Washington State. Specific laws or rules may apply to your particular organization or its programs that are not addressed in this checklist.
- The checklist is intended to assist you in identifying potential legal problems. If you have identified a potential problem which you are unsure how to resolve, or have questions on matters not covered in this checklist, we recommend that you consult an attorney.

If your organization is unable to afford an attorney, please contact Communities Rise (formerly Wayfind and the Nonprofit Assistance Center) at contact@communities-rise.org or 1-206-324-5850, to see if your organization is eligible for pro bono legal services. Thank you for your patience as we work to finalize our new Communities Rise (CR) website.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
		Our board of directors reviews the Articles of Incorporation at least once a year to make sure that actual practice is consistent with these documents.	Your Articles of Incorporation define what your organization will do and who will be initially responsible for the management of the corporation.
-Registered agent
		Our Organization’s registered agent is still at the address on file with the Secretary of State.	Your “registered agent” is the main contact with the Secretary of State. Verify the name and address of a nonprofit corporation’s registered agent here: ccfs.sos.wa.gov
		The registered agent has signed a consent form that is on file with the Secretary of State
		We can rely on our registered agent to give us mail that comes to the corporation
BYLAWS
		Our board of directors review the Bylaws at least once a year to make sure that actual practice is consistent with these documents.	Your Bylaws accurately set out the rules that govern the internal management of your organization.
FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
		Our Organization prepares and maintains financial statements and statements of accounts on a regular basis.	Financial statements include a Profit and Loss Statement and a Balance Sheet. Statements of Account means that the bank statement is balanced monthly.
- Financial controls
		Our board has reviewed, and if necessary secured expert advice about, our financial controls, and regularly revisits this topic to assure adequate scope and compliance.

or reviewed
- Separation of duties
		Our Organization has adequate separation of financial duties. In particular, the person writing and signing checks is different than the person reviewing and reconciling bank statements.
		More than one person is an authorized signer on our Organization's bank accounts, and these signatories are up-to-date.
- No loans
		Our Organization does not make loans to any of its officers or directors
- Restrictions
		Our Organization understands and carefully observes any use or spending restrictions on grants and other contributed funds.
- Insurance
		Our Organization has Officer and Director insurance, and the board members have reviewed the policy and understand what it covers and what it does not cover.
ANNUAL REPORT
		Our Organization files an annual report with the Washington Secretary of State. (You may also need to register as a Charitable Organization; see "Fundraising" for more.)	The annual report is due the last day of organization's incorporation month.
BUSINESS LICENSE
		Our Organization has filed a Master Business Application with the State of Washington.	bls.dor.wa.gov/file.aspx
STATE TAXES
		Our Organization understands its obligation to pay any state sales or business and occupation taxes.	See the The Washington State Tax Basics for Nonprofits toolkit on wayfindlegal.org/tools/legal/
		Our organization understands whether it is entitled to any exemptions from these taxes	Some nonprofits can be exempt from some taxes for specific reasons.
LOCAL
		Our Organization has a current license to do business from the city/county where it is located.
		Our Organization understands its obligation to pay any local business and occupation or property taxes.

OWNERSHIP
		Our Organization has proper licenses or permission to use all photos and written information created by other persons or organizations.
		Our Organization has considered whether it should register or obtain other protection for any of its unique logos, names, or symbols. We are confident that our Organization's name does not infringe on the rights of any other organization.	Trademark includes any word, name, symbol, device, or combination used or intended to be used to identify/distinguish goods and services.
		Our organization has considered whether it should register its original works or designs.	Copyright is a form of protection grounded in the U.S. Constitution for original works of authorship fixed in a tangible medium of expression.
If Yes, Date sent or reviewed	No	Checklist	Information

		Our Organization has considered whether it would be appropriate to license any written materials, photographs, recordings, art, policy manuals, seminar materials, etc, that may be available for use by others.	If the organization has materials that it creates and wants to limit use of those materials by others, then it must consider whether it wants to create a licensing agreement to allow others to use the materials with their limitations.
		When contracting with third parties to perform services, our Organization uses an employment or independent contractor agreement that assigns ownership to the Organization of intellectual property created by the employee or contractor within the scope of his or her work for the Organization.	One example comes in hiring a third party to create a website. The Organization should obtain ownership of the intellectual property in the website design from the developer.
PRIVACY POLICY
		Our Organization has considered implementing a written privacy policy that describes how the Organization uses and discloses personal information.
		If a privacy policy has been adopted, the Organization periodically confirms that it is in compliance with the commitments it makes in that policy.
WEBSITE
		If our Organization operates a website, the Organization has posted written terms of use or terms of service that limits the Organization's liability and disclaims warranties. These terms of service are prominently located on the Organization's website. If our Organization allows third parties to post information on the Organization's website, the Organization has implemented a Digital Millennium Copyright Act compliant notice and takedown provision as part of its terms of use or terms of service. The organization has also registered an agent with the US Copyright Office to receive notices of copyright infringement under the DMCA
